MARQUETTE UNIVERSITY Jesuit Residence

This environmentally friendly, on-campus residence provides high quality housing for Marquette University's community of 44 Jesuit priests. The residence reflects the Jesuit's contemplative way of life and communal approach to daily living and includes a chapel at its center, along with additional worship and meeting spaces. The residence also emphasizes the Jesuit commitment to higher education, is LEED Green, and remains at the center of campus, underscoring the University's identity and tradition as a Catholic, Jesuit institution.
